a heart and a dollar*

The Red Cross Mass Meeting at Elm Hall on Monday evening next, 16th instant, will furnish a delightful treat to the people of Narberth. The Meeting will be addressed by Major W. G. Hayward, of the British Royal Fusiliers, a hero of the Gallipoli campaign, and by Major William C. Williams, of Pennsylvania's Own, Iron Division, whose personal gallantry at the Marne and on the Vesle earned for him promotion as well as splendid commendation from the war correspondents who were on the spot. It is expected that Elm Hall will be crowded to hear these famous fighters.

ORGANIZATION

Mrs. Charlton Yarnall, of Main Line Branch No. 1, of the American Red Cross, has appointed Mrs. Alexander Brown to lead the Christmas roll call. Miss Elizabeth Shipley, Vice-Chairman.

Mrs. William McCall, Office Manager. Mrs. Wm. J. Clothier, Mrs. George B. Rea, Mrs. Joseph F. Page, 3rd, Mrs. Henry C. Ernschaw, Publicity.

With the following as Divisional Managers:

Mrs. Oswald Smith, Merion. Mrs. Fletcher Stites, Narberth. Mrs. Wm. Wattles, Wynnewood. Mrs. Richard E. Norton, Ardmore. Mrs. Harlan C. Nicholson, Ardmore. Mrs. Ensign, Ardmore. Mrs. J. Kenton Eisenbrey, Rosemont. Mrs. John R. Maxwell, Villa Nova. Miss Margaret Tenney, Haverford. Mrs. David Ramsey, Bryn Mawr.

Headquarters will be established at 809 Lancaster avenue, Bryn Mawr, and will be open from 9 A. M. to 9 P. M. daily.

Instead of the luncheon which took place each day last year, there will be two afternoon meetings at the Merion Cricket Club for all workers in the Christmas roll call, Wednesday, December 18th, and Monday, December 23rd, at 4 P. M., to compare the results of the campaign. Time is so precious these busy days that we all felt the urgent need of using every minute for canvassing for this big drive.

RELIEF WORK MUST BE CONTINUED FOR MONTHS.

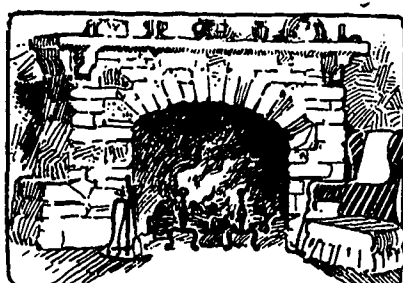

Enrollment of Members in Red Cross Should Be Nation-wide.

Now that the war is won, many citizens are asking why the Red Cross is planning to enroll the entire population of the city as members the week before Christmas.

The Chairman of the local Executive Committee of the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call organization makes the following reply: "Starvation, sickness and sorrow did not vanish in Europe when the fighting ceased. On the contrary, the new conditions have revealed greater opportunities for the American people, through the Red Cross, to extend relief. This work is just as imperative in peace as in war, though not so dramatic.

"Besides, Narberth boys in France or in home camps, with millions of other American soldiers and sailors, have a right to expect that Red Cross service will be continued for them in full measure until demobilization is completed. This means the Red Cross must 'carry on' for many months, and the money raised through membership dues will help finance the service."

BEST CHRISTMAS GIFT
EASILY OBTAINABLE.

Membership in Red Cross Costs Little and Does Much.

Tardy Narberth shoppers need not worry about their failure to buy Christmas gifts in October. The best gift is to be available the week before Christmas. There is an unlimited supply, and there will be no difficulty in purchasing. The cost is only one dollar.

This gift is membership in the Red Cross, and it is a gift to the Narberth boys in the Army and Navy as well as to the victims of war in all countries. These men will interpret an overwhelming enrollment of the people as members in the American Red Cross as a guarantee of continued service of a kind they have learned to value highly.

The Red Cross Christmas Roll Call, December 16-23, will afford the opportunity to buy this gift, and delivery will be made without fail on Christmas Eve in a cablegram to be sent to General Pershing announcing the united support of the nation for the Red Cross policy.

What finer Christmas gift can Narberth send? Added to every other city and the rural districts, the enrollment here will make a total that will kindle hope everywhere people are suffering.

Our two million soldiers in France, our sailors on the high seas and the men in training in this country should know beyond a shadow of doubt that they will receive everything—absolutely everything—in the way of Red Cross service until the last one is mustered out. A universal response to the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call will give them such assurance.

If possible Narberth should enroll every adult the first day, December 16. At any rate, the task must be finished before Christmas Eve.

Early in the summer Secretary Baker announced that there were 1,200,000 troops in Europe. Immediately a German war official proclaimed to the German people that this statement of Mr. Baker's was not true, because it could not be true. He said we didn't have an army of that size, and that if we had it would have been impossible for us to have sent the men to Europe because of our lack of ships, and that even had we boats enough to carry them, the German submarines would have sent them to the bottom before they reached their ports of destination. He concluded this remarkable house-that-Jack-built statement with the assurance that German soldiers would never have anything to fear from American soldiers.

Our enemy looked on with sneers and jeers and contempt, followed by fear and panic, while democracy built an army. Our Allies watched with hope and with doubt, while a democracy turned its citizens into soldiers and sent the finished product to the battle fronts of Europe.

You will remember the 5th of June a year ago, when between dawn and dark ten million men—to be exact, 9,586,508 men between the ages of 21 and 31, were enrolled for military service, how within 48 hours practically all registration returns were assembled by telegraph here at Washington.

The same process was repeated last June, and again in August, when something like 850,000 men, the new 21-year-olds, were enrolled; and now the fourth registration which Congress has just authorized includes 13,000,000 more, up to 45 years of age and down to 18. That will leave in the country only about five million able-bodied men. The rest will be boys and gray-heads.

At first glance the biggest thing about the draft appears to be its size, but great as that is, the numbers are hardly as remarkable and as significant as the fact that the people raised their own army. Every town, city and county nominated its best men, and they were put in charge. No mighty Federal war machine composed of army officers was sent from Washington and intruded everywhere into the framework of local government.

At the Capital Provost Marshal General Crowder with a force of forty officers perfected the plans and directed the work, assisted by five hundred clerks, mostly women. The selective draft was put into effect by thirty thousand civilian officers and was administered by home town people, friends and neighbors. It was the finest demonstration ever made of local self-government.

As to the cost, it is to be noted that the bill for the draft is far less per man than for volunteering. In 1914 it cost $24.48 for recruiting a man into the volunteer system; in 1915 it was $19.14, and for the nine months just before we went to war it was $28.95. During the first year of the war down to the 7th of April, 1918, official reports show that the cost for registering each man was 54 cents. The cost for each man called was $1.69, and the cost for each man accepted for service came to $4.93.

The appropriations for the Provost Marshal General's office were $19,134,903, and the expenditures were $13,054,634.44, and included among its largest items the salaries of local and district draft boards, $4,210,000; salaries of clerical assistants to district and local boards, $3,900,000; and $2,548,413 was spent for printing and other expenses.

Our Army is, every American believes, the finest body of human beings the sun ever shone on. It is fit to fight that the world may be made safe for democracy, and it is built strictly on the lines of democracy. The millionaire and the humblest laborer march side by side. Officers are drawn from every walk of life. No man is exempted because he is rich. None are drafted because they are poor. Men are measured by their willingness or their capacity. Past, or caste, or creeds are not taken into account.

Thus the selective draft has become a badge of honorable service!

Sincerely yours,

ANTOINETTE FUNK,

Director Propaganda and Speakers' Department.

AMERICAN RED CROSS.

On Active Service with the American Expeditionary Force.

Name, Sgt. W. H. Tilton,
U. S. Army Base Hospital No. 50,
Hospital Centre A. P. O. 798,
American Ex. Forces.

Tuesday, October 30, 1918.

My Dear "Red Crossers:"

Care of Mrs. Charlton Yarnall, Chairman.

No doubt you have been wondering in just what particular part of this battle-worn soil your various boxes containing some of the main necessities of this great war are.

Well, I can vouch for two boxes of your organization, as I opened them to-day in the medical supply warehouse of Base Hospital No. 50, which is at the present time at Hospital Centre Mesues-Buley. You will not be able to find this point on the map, but it is about half way between Nevers and Cosul, France.

The boxes contained paper backed pads. These pads are being used under patients or wounded soldiers rather with open wounds, and for their use they are hitting the mark just as much as the bullets from our guns are hitting their mark. And, believe me, our fire is hitting all the time; in fact, so well that we heard to-day that Austria threw up her hands and said, "Enough." And from the looks Germany will follow suit ere long.

Well, duty calls me so I will not linger any longer at present writing, but I thought you would probably like to know of the good use some of your, no doubt, many boxes are being put to. Also that I—and I am sure I can truthfully speak of every fellow in the A. E. F.—greatly appreciate the successful efforts of the American Red Cross.

Sincerely,

SGT. WM. H. TILTON.

CUB'S WEEKLY LETTER

To the Editor of Our Town:

John has changed his office to look like a seashore cottage. On alighting at Narberth, the visitor's first impression after seeing John's shack is that the beach is nearby. Took three men to paint the thing, although one able-bodied man would be ashamed to take over an hour to daub up the whole place. And Bill Cummer tells us that painters are scarce. Perhaps real painters are.

Have you noticed the trellis? Looks heavy enough for John to use as a step-ladder in case he desires to take an occasional nap on the roof.

Great is the power of the press! The Post Office doors are now so arranged as to make it impossible for you to meet yourself coming back after once entering the building. Only one man, I understand, is not happy—that's August Evergreen, who was better suited with the old arrangement. Aloysius Scrub is delighted, but hesitates to admit it, because he's afraid of Haws.

Old Timer is sore because the Fire Company is to be turned over to the Borough. Says it's a confession on the part of the officers that they have failed to make good. Old Timer contends that the regime that has been running things the last few years is incompetent—something that could not be said of the Old Guard. "Too much strutting around and talking—too little ability and too little real work."

Be that as it may, it is to be deplored that there are not enough men in this town who are willing to pay $3.00 per year for the support of the Fire Company, notwithstanding the fact the tightwads are getting the benefit of low fire insurance rates due to the existence of the Fire Company and would be the first to growl if they needed the services of the firemen and they were not forthcoming. If the Borough takes over the company and the apparatus, Elm Hall will be included. We shall then have a real Municipal Building. And, what is more important, everybody will pay his share for fire protection in his taxes or rent.

morning and evening.

ORGANIZATION.

All that is asked of any adult in the Red Cross Christmas Roll Call is that he or she shall have "a heart and a dollar." When you multiply these hearts and dollars by the millions of adults in the United States, it is evident that a substantial total will be raised if the response to the Roll Call is general.

Children will not be solicited, as they already are represented in the school auxiliaries, or will enroll through the auxiliaries at twenty-five cents a year, but they will be valuable aids in the Roll Call by reminding their parents of the opportunity to register approval of the greatest relief work in the history of the world.

THE FIRESIDE.

At Narberth Post Office there is a sufficient amount of stamps yet to be sold to make it imperative upon the part of our citizens to come forward and invest in these stamps very liberally during the remaining weeks of the

This evening the Narberth High School opens its home basketball sea-sharp. Tickets on sale at the door.

A photoplay of daring intensity and gripping emotional interest is "The Road Through the Dark" in which beautiful Clara Kimball Young is starred, will be shown at the Palace, Ardmore, on Wednesday. Miss Young will be seen in a story of love, adventure and intrigue superior and more powerful than any of her past screen successes.

In order to insure the sale of sufficient War Savings Stamps and Thrift Stamps in Narberth that we may say our community has "gone over the top" in this very necessary war measure, a Committee of Fifty representative women of the town is now being formed to boost the purchasing of these Stamps which, by the way, is a decidedly good investment—the rate of interest on the War Savings Stamps being 4.4%. During the remainder of this month about $10,000 must be purchased.

The committee selected by Mrs. C. P.
Fowler, Chairman, for increasing the purchase of War Stamps in Narberth during the balance of the year 1918, is as follows: Mrs. W. S. Horner, Mrs.
Wm. T. Riley, Mrs. Lester W. Nickerson,
Mrs. Louis Liggett, Mrs. Walton
M. Wentz, Mrs. E. H. Cockrill, Mrs. C.

EMPLOYMENT FOR WAR WORKERS.

Almost immediately upon the signing of the armistice a comprehensive program was put into effect by the War Industries Board and the Federal Departments of War and Labor, having in view the transfer of returning soldiers and other war workers to peace industries with as little delay and inconvenience to them as possible. On these Departments rests the responsibility not only for the cancellation of war contracts as rapidly as possible without undue industrial disturbance, but also for the placing in suitable positions of the men and women thrown out of employment by such cancellations.

Fortunately, during the past two years, rapid advances have been made in the extension throughout the country of the activities of the United States Employment Service of the Department of Labor and, consequently,
that Department is exceptionally well equipped to handle the difficult labor problem with which the country is now confronted.

To meet this situation the Employment Service has made arrangements with the other departments of the Government to be advised in advance of any proposed cancellation of contracts, and every possible effort is made to work out beforehand the solution of labor problems involved by such cancellation.

While, of course, difficulties will arise
from time to time which it is impossible to anticipate and prepare for, the efforts of the Government to avoid all unnecessary hardship to both employers and employees in connection with industrial changes from a war to a peace basis is meeting with much success.

Peg's Ideas on Conservation

I KNEW Peggy was in war work but I didn't know she carried it into the home.
She started the conservation subject and finally switched to the telephone.

"But what has the telephone—?"

"I'll show you" exclaimed Peg, anticipating my question. "Take, for instance, the telephone message, 'What are you going to wear?' You know how many times we ask that over the telephone. Also we make as many other unimportant and needless calls. Such things can be decided just as easily when arrangements are first made. Then, too—"

But I am sure you get the point.

I did, and, as I thought it over several hours later, it occurred to me that every time we telephone we should stop and ask ourselves
whether the call is more important than the saving of equipment and the operators' services for the war industries.

Then, I am sure we will see that our part—the woman's part—is to telephone only when necessary.

From eligibles resulting from this examination it is expected that certification will be made to fill future and existing vacancies.

For application form 1371 and "Instructions to Applicants," address local Secretary at Narberth, Pa., in Post Office Building.

Application forms must be filed with the Secretary of the Third Civil Service District, 402 Post Office Building, Philadelphia, Pa., in time for the examination.

WHAT ABOUT THOSE PICTURES?

PHOTOGRAPHS OF OUR BOYS IN THE SERVICE WANTED FOR DISPLAY IN A PROMINENT PLACE IN NARBERTH.

The Narberth Red Triangle Committee, before the signing of the armistice, sent out a call for photographs of all boys from Narberth now in the service of Uncle Sam. The committee planned to display these pictures in a prominent place in town, framed and glass covered, in order that all might learn to know these fine fellows who were willing to make every sacrifice for democracy.

Only 18 pictures have been turned in to the Y. M. C. A. to date, and the committee, still thinking it a worthwhile project, takes this opportunity to send out a second call. If possible those photographs now in hand will be displayed temporarily in some safe place. If a large enough number of additional photos are turned in after this plea arrangements will then be made for a permanent location of the case to hold all the pictures.

What is your pleasure? The committee will act if you respond.

SPECIAL INVITATION

To all the people of Narberth to join in a Patriotic Service on the lawn of the Baptist Church Saturday, the 14th, at 2:30. Eighteen trees will be planted in honor of the boys from the church with Uncle Sam. Hon. Fletcher Stites will speak and appropriate exercises will be held. In case of unfavorable weather the celebration will be held in the church building. Let us all join in making this a fitting tribute to the gallant service rendered to our country by our boys.

BASKETBALL.

On Tuesday afternoon the Haverford College Freshman team defeated the Narberth High School team in a well-played game. The score was 34 to 21.

Captain Kenneth Walton and Bob Matzke, of the Collegians, starred for their team, while Captain John Dickie played a good all-round game for the High School boys.

The game was close until the last part of the second half, when the Haverford boys broke loose and piled up points on Narberth.

The line-up:

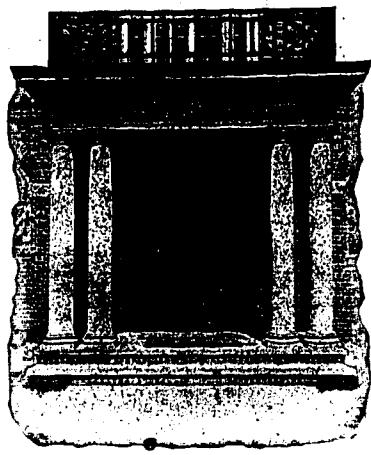

Narberth. Haverford Freshmen.

Dickie, Capt. Forward..... Matzke
Jenkins..... Forward..... Hendricks
Martin..... Center..... Hilleman
Ward..... Guard..... Walton, Capt.
Dickie..... Guard..... Heilmann

Field Goals—Dickie, 6; Jenkins, 1; Matzke, 11; Hendricks, 1; Walton, 3; Bucknell, 2. Foul Goals—Dickie, 7 out of 7; Matzke, 0 out of 1. Referee—Thorpe, Haverford College.

The Y. M. C. A. leaders heartily thank the churches of Narberth which in union meeting on Thanksgiving Day presented a very substantial offering toward our work. We are glad for your support, church members of Narberth. Our effort is to serve the churches, not to compete with them.

Special Warning to all Members of the Narberth Tennis Association

Set aside the evening of January 11—Saturday—as the time for a special and important engagement, if you want to begin the New Year with the right kind of a start, and have an easy conscience all during 1919.

For on that evening there will be a "big party" in Elm Hall which every member of the Narberth Tennis Association will want to attend. To begin with, there will be a dinner. Then the prizes won in the Labor Day Tournament will be awarded—and we understand that President Hall is already rehearsing his remarks and promises something in the oratorical line that will make us forget that there ever were such silver-tongued artists as Bob Ingersoll, the Boy Orator of the Platte and a few others, too well known and too numerous to mention. The windup of the evening will be a dance.

But somewhere in between the "call to arms," that is to say, the raising of the soup spoons preparatory to "wading in" and the "good night" dance, SOMETHING is going to happen. No need to wear gas masks, but you want to be on hand and you will want to keep your wits about you. This feature of the program is being hatched, schemed and connived at, at secret meetings of certain members of the association. That's as much as the Committee would trust with the press agent at this time. But more later. Look for announcement in next week's issue of Our Town.

SCHOOL NOTES

Christmas Carols will be sung by the High School pupils on Monday evening, December 23rd. Doors open at 7:30 and the program begins promptly at 8:00. The public is invited.

The elementary children will render the annual Christmas program on Tuesday morning, December 24th, at 8:40. To these exercises also the general public is invited. Persons desiring to attend either of the exercises are courteously requested to arrive before the opening minute. Reasons for this are obvious, yet how often persons thoughtlessly come late.

The Christmas intermission will begin on Tuesday at 10:30 and extend to the Monday after New Year's, January 6th.

Basketball and Dance on Saturday, December 14, 8 P. M. The Narberth High School will play the Provident Club in basketball in the Gymnasium of the Elementary Building. Admission, 15 cents. Following the game the auditorium will be open for dancing. Admission ticket to the game and dance, 50 cents a couple. Patronesses for the game will be Mrs. S. B. Dickie, Mrs. C. P. Fowler and Mrs. Walter Dothard. Proceeds for the benefit of the Athletic Association.

On Saturday, December 28th, there will be a Junior Red Cross Benefit given by the Sophomore Class, to be held in the School Auditorium at 8:15 P. M.

The schools are always open to visitors. Come at any time and you will find a welcome.

- As it is difficult for those contributing their time and efforts to the production of "Our Town" to personally either know or interview all such, it would be most helpful if those not now found in the printed list would send in a memo of their names, address, phone numbers and businesses or professions for listing. This will cost as follows: 10 cents each issue for 3 lines; 5 cents for each additional line.
